Massage Oil Elements

The world-renowned Thai art of healing involves application of traditional Thai methodology of the four elements of life: Earth, Water, Air, and Fire. Luxsa Spa interprets this elements theory into our daily service and treatment to balance the relationship of harmony, physiology and pathology of body and environment.

Men's Facial by Biodroga

It is very healthy for men to have facials, however it is recommended that men shave a few hours before their facial treatment.
